MUTUAL CONFIDENCE

It is the constant purpose of the management of this bank to come into close personal contact with its patrons and establish mutual confidence between its officers and its customers. Every facility is extended consistent with our conservative policy and every courtesy is accorded to those who patronize this bank.

NOTICE

For forty-four years we have been conducting business at the same old location, corner of Main and John streets, Bridgeport, Conn., and our Private Bank has been established there continuously. We have received and paid out on demand without notice millions of dollars of money deposited with us and we continue to receive money subject to depositor's check at sight, on which we allow three per cent. per annum, credited to each account monthly. We solicit the accounts of individuals, business men, firms and corporations, and all who want a bank account where they can deposit money in cash or drafts, and leave it for one day, one week, one month or one year, and draw interest on it for any time it is left with us. We give to the business our careful personal attention as the oldest firm of private bankers in this state.

Insure Against Loss by Burglary and Theft

Is better than the best safe ever built or the greatest care that can be exercised.

It can't prevent your being robbed, but it can and does make good the loss.

Its scope is so broad that it even covers thefts by servants.

It allows your house to be unoccupied during six months of the year.

Its settlements are both prompt and liberal.

In fact it prevents worry and foots the bills if your property is stolen.

We find, however, that people have been fooled so often by concerns who have offered them such extremely low rates and other inducements, that it is hard to make them recognize a STRAIGHT-FORWARD HONEST PROPOSITION such as we offer. We make no big offer that we do not intend to make good.

THE THEATRES

POLI'S

Almost two hours of continuous laughter can best testify to the comedy that there is in "Glittering Gloria" presented by the Poli Players at Poli's this week to large and splendid audiences at each performance. "Glittering Gloria" was originally a musical comedy, but as musical comedies as a rule have but little real comedy in them and "Glittering Gloria" was brimful of it. It was thought best to rewrite it for the dramatic stage where it rightly belonged, and it has been a glittering success in every way. The plot centers about a reigning favorite of the stage, a beautiful woman who has captivated London and most notably a group of admirers who come together in a jeweler's shop where each is intent on purchasing a diamond necklace for Gloria. Some of them are married, others of them are engaged and still others have no matrimonial alliances. The wives and fiancées learn of the deceit and the infatuation and the fun is fast and furious. Out of a multiplicity of good comedy roles the artistic bit of the play is done by Arthur Buchanan, a splendidly good character comedian, who in the role of Mr. Poskett gives one of the best comedy bits ever seen in Bridgeport in any production.

Albie Fleming in the title role certainly looks the part and wears some attractive costumes, while John E. Ince and J. Hammond Dalley, the married and unmarried chums who get into some terrible predicaments, aid materially in the fun making. Indeed every role is admirably handled, particularly the role of Dorothy played by Eleanor Parker, the new ingenue of the company. The staging of the production is a distinct improvement. Mr. Eagle, the stage director of the company.

At the matinee coupons are given for a valuable bracelet and pearl necklace now on exhibition in the window of Hawley, Davis & Company, and which is to be given away Monday next.

"FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS"

HAVE CURED ME.

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." F. B. Brill and Curtis Pharmacy. * 135

BAND CONCERT.

There have been but few concerts at Washington Park in the past few seasons that gave more satisfaction to its hearers than did the concert by the Coast Artillery Corps band last night, as the band certainly did itself justice by the splendid manner in which it carried out a well selected program. Each selection was warmly received. The Marathon Quartette, formerly known as the Ted Snyder Quartette, composed of the following singers, T. J. Penfield, Gus Wicke, George Doris and Louis Telford, were present and made a great hit with their two selections, "Grizzly Bear" and an "Italian Love Song," both of which they will sing next week at Seaside Park, when they will surely be here again.

"A NIGHT AT BUNNELL'S."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eastwood Bunnell, formerly of Cincinnati, and now numbered among the most prominent entertainers of the Ninth district, celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary last night at the Western style, at their residence, 325 Noble avenue.

The evening started with a fine display of fireworks and a pure orchestra. After the preliminary congratulations, etc., the host and hostess entertained with bridge whist between the guests. The illuminations on their spacious porch and lawn. A bountiful collation was served to the guests following the play and, after listening to rousing addresses by Major J. Edward Kelly, Mr. Bunnell, the host, and Eugene C. J. Kelly, the gathering began to disperse, showering the "bride" and "groom" with myriads of confetti, giving three illustrious cheers for their hospitality and wishing them many happy returns of their anniversary.

CHEAP ICE TOMORROW.

Ice will be sold at wholesale tomorrow by Ernest Knatz of Long Hill at the foot of Kiefer street, cheaper than it has been sold in Bridgeport for years. It is expected that any man to go there and get a week's supply as he will thus be a big winner.

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN.

The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., cordially invite any woman interested to call at their laboratory at Lynn, Mass., and see for herself the care which is taken with the vast correspondence received from the women of this country. No letter or testimonial has ever been made public without the written wish or consent of the writer. No confidence has ever been violated and never in their history have they sold or disposed of any of their letters from women. It is for these reasons that thousands of suffering American women every year feel free to write Mrs. Pinkham for her valuable advice, which is always given free of charge.

Damaged by Fire.

The residence of J. Henry Roth in Danbury was damaged by fire Sunday evening. The fire started in a large clothes closet while Mr. and Mrs. Roth were absent. The flames worked into the partitions and from there up into the attic and made a hole in the roof. Some of the woodwork on the second floor was damaged also. Mr. and Mrs. Roth lost nearly all their clothing which was burned up in the closet.
